

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Too close for comfort.

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe plans for the organization of events.

Ask your partner:

- Did you ever go on a date?
- Where did you go?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and compare words with the o sound.
- I can use appropriate sentence stress.
- I can identify key information in a short audio clip.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Sally chat about Vanessa's date. Was Marco's behavior appropriate? Should she give him another chance*?

* "Appropriate" means suitable for the purpose or situation.

 "Another chance" means to give another opportunity.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hey, Sally.
Sally: Hi, how was your walk through the park with Marco?
Vanessa: The weather was nice. There were lots of kids in the playground.
Sally: That doesn't sound too romantic ...
Vanessa: I think Marco might be a big kid himself. He wanted to play on the swings.
Sally: I don't believe it. He seems too cool for that.
Vanessa: There was a bit of an incident at the pond though ... geese everywhere.
Sally: What do you mean?
Vanessa: Marco thought it would be funny to put his arms around my waist and make me face an incoming flock of hissing birds.
Sally: Huh ... he wouldn't let you go? They can be vicious.
Vanessa: I was not amused.
Sally: Well, you know what guys can be like sometimes. Give him a chance.
Vanessa: Hmm ... alright. He bought me flowers.
Sally: Around the waist, huh?
Vanessa: Nothing happened, Sally.

Let's Practice!

You can use the letter o to produce a variety of sounds. It is commonly mispronounced in English.

Instructions: Practice reading the words and sentences aloud.

1. through
2. pond
3. bought
4. thought
5. cool
6. How was your walk through the park with Marco?
7. There was a bit of an incident at the pond though.
8. He bought me flowers.
9. He seems too cool for that.
10. Marco thought it would be funny to put his arms around my waist.

Let's Practice!

Which words are stressed in these sentences? Can you express surprise or disbelief?

Instructions: Read the text. Check off the correct box in the table. There is one answer per question.

	Rising Intonation	Falling Intonation
What do you mean?
I don't believe it. He seems too cool for that.
Around the waist, huh?
How was your walk through the park with Marco?

Extension Activity

Imagine you or a friend went on a date. Write a dialogue about the experience.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a 10-12 line dialogue about a date.
- Describe the location and what happened.
- Use 5 words that have different o sounds.
- Read the dialogue aloud to a partner or family member.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about a date.

☐
☐

I say and use words with o sounds in conversations.

☐
☐

I read my dialogue aloud to a partner or family member.

☐
☐

Target Words

- big kid (expression): to act in a child-like way
e.g. My boyfriend was acting like a big kid.
- flock (noun): a group of birds or animals
e.g. The flock of geese was moving towards us.
- to hiss (verb): to make a noise which sounds like "ssss"
e.g. The geese made a hissing sound.
- vicious (adjective): very dangerous and violent
e.g. The vicious animal made us nervous.
- to amuse (verb): to make someone laugh or smile
e.g. I was not amused with his behavior.

Learning Points

Sentence Stress - Disbelief or Surprise

You use sentence stress on some words in a sentence. These are content words.

Content words are the key (important) words of a sentence. You place emphasis on these words.

If you want to express surprise or disbelief, the sound at the end of the sentence changes.

You use rising intonation to tell the listener that you are surprised by what they just heard.

Example: Wow, that's amazing!

You use falling intonation to express sarcasm or disbelief.

Example: I don't believe that!

