Let's Start!

We have lots to talk about! You won't believe what happened!

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to talk on the phone with your friends?
- Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about free time activities.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.
- I can report about actions, events or people.

Let's Explore!

Sally chats with Vanessa. What do they talk about?

* To "chat" with friends is a common free time activity.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: How are you? How's Marco?
Vanessa: I'm good. He's great! We have lots to catch up on! You won't believe what happened!
Sally: What happened?
Vanessa: So, I was painting my nails, when I heard the doorbell.
Sally: Okay ...
Vanessa: I went to see who it was. I wasn't expecting anyone.
Sally: Let me guess, it was Marco?
Vanessa: How did you know, Sally?
Sally: Just a lucky guess.
Vanessa: I was surprised to see him. I gave him a call earlier, now I know why. He had a surprise for me.
Sally: Oh?
Vanessa: He cooked and brought dinner over for me.
Sally: Cute! What did he make you?
Vanessa: Veal marsala.
Sally: Fancy. Were you guys gazing into each other's eyes as you talked?
Vanessa: Oh Sally. He looked really nervous. I thought it was kind of cute.
Sally: I think watching penguins while they waddle is cute. I read a book about them.
Vanessa: Sally, you always spoil the mood.

Learning Points

Past & Past Continuous Tense

You use the Past Continuous tense to talk about something that was happening at a particular time in the past.

Form: subject + was/were + verb-ing

You can use the Past Continuous tense together with the Simple Past tense.

The Past Continuous talks about a longer 'background' action. The Simple Past talks about a shorter event that happened in the middle of, or interrupted, the longer event.

You use the words when, while and as.

Examples:

- She was studying for her test when I called her.
- While I was opening the cupboard, I heard a loud crash.*
- As I was walking, the bird flew by.*
