Let's Start!

Let's visit Marco's apartment!

Learning Outcome

Describe rooms, homes and objects in buildings in common social and work situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is your house like?
- What would you change in it?
- Would you change any room? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about rooms and objects in them.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can react or comment on a story.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa visits Marco's for the first time. What does she think?

* You can use a person's name with the possessive when talking about their home.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Marco: Welcome to my humble abode.
Vanessa: This is nice. That's a cool lamp and armchair!
Marco: Thanks. The lamp's from my sister.
Vanessa: You have a sister?
Marco: Yes, an older sister named Francesca. She brought me back this lamp from Turkey as a housewarming gift.
Vanessa: Really?
Marco: Mhmm. Let me show you the kitchen.
Vanessa: Marco, this is as cool as I expected it to be. Is this your mug collection?
Marco: Yep, I collect cutlery too. I like collecting them. Each mug has its own story.
Vanessa: What's the story behind this one?
Marco: I got this one when I was in Thailand.
Vanessa: Wow! Thailand?
Marco: Yes, there was an artist who painted and sold them.
Vanessa: No way! This was hand-painted?
Marco: Yeah, I think it's a masterpiece.
Vanessa: Speaking of masterpieces, did you paint this?
Marco: No, I didn't. Someone named Picasso did. It's a copy.

Let's Practice!

Marco tells Vanessa stories about the objects in his house. How does she react?

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

- Marco: She brought me back this lamp from Turkey as a housewarming gift.
Vanessa: (Ok / Really / That's incredible)?
- Marco: I got this one when I was in Thailand.
Vanessa: (Amaze / Call / Wow)!
- Marco: Yes, there was an artist who painted and sold them.
Vanessa: (What happened / No way / Believable)!

Let's Practice!

Do you remember Marco's story?

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has at least 1 mistake.

She bring me back this lamp from Turkey as a housewarming gift. I travel to Thailand. I buy this one when I am in Thailand. There was an artist who paint and sell them.

Extension Activity

You are going to make up a story!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Pretend that you are in your bedroom. Suddenly, the walls of your room start to talk. What do they say? What do you say?
- Write a short story about what happens. Use the Simple Past tense.
- Proofread your story. Read it aloud to a partner.

Dining Room	table, chairs
Kitchen	stove, oven, fridge, microwave, sink, cupboard
Bedroom	bed, drawer, blanket, closet
Bathroom	shower, toilet, tub, faucet

Learning Points

Reacting to a Story

When someone tells you a story, it is important to react to show that you are listening. You can show surprise and interest.

Show Surprise	Show Interest
Oh?	Wow!
Oh yeah?	No!
Really?	Oh boy!
Oh, really?	Amazing!
Is that right?	That's unbelievable!
What happened?	Get out of here!
No way!

Examples:

• Chelsea: My sister found it in a shop.

Tom: Oh yeah?
