Let's Start!

The person you are trying to reach is unavailable. Please leave a message.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about methods of communication and communication technology in common social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about free time activities.
- I can leave a voicemail message.
- I can talk about possible actions and events in the future.

Ask your partner:

- Do you leave voicemail messages?
Why or why not?
- Do you listen to them?

Let's Explore!

Marco leaves Vanessa a voicemail message. What does he say?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Marco: Hi, Vanessa. It's Marco! I really enjoyed our walk in the park. I was just calling to see if you're up for going to the movies on Friday? If you are, let me know. I'll buy the tickets before we go. After we see the movie, we'll grab some ice cream if you'd like, or some gelato. Talk to you later.
- Vanessa: Hello?
- Marco: Hey, Vanessa!
- Vanessa: Sorry I missed your call. I was reading.
- Marco: It's okay. Did you listen to my message?
- Vanessa: Yeah. Which movie are we going to see?
- Marco: I thought that movie about the serial killer would be exciting to watch.
- Vanessa: I don't think so. I kind of want to see The Life of Rosie.
- Marco: Maybe we can find something that's between a chick flick and a horror film.
- Vanessa: Mm ... we'll decide on something when we get to the theater.

Let's Practice!

What activities did Marco and Vanessa mention? Do you remember?

Instructions: Select all the free time activities.

1. Marco: I enjoyed our walk in the park! Do you want to go to the movies on Friday? What kind of movie should we see?
2. Vanessa: Sure, we can grab some ice cream or gelato after. I kind of want to see a chick flick.
3. Marco: What are you up to now?
Vanessa: I'm reading a book. It's about a serial killer.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa is listening to her voicemail, but there's some confusion.

Instructions: Number these sentences to put them in the correct order.

- _____ After the movies, we'll grab some ice cream if you'd like.
- _____ If you are, let me know.
- _____ Hi, Vanessa. It's Marco!
- _____ Bye!
- _____ Talk to you later.
- _____ I was just calling to see if you're up for going to the movies on Friday.

Extension Activity

You need to leave a message for your friend.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Pretend that you are calling your friend. They don't pick up their phone, and you can't text them. You have to leave a voicemail message for them.
- Write out your message (60-70 words). Remember to include the important information. Proofread your message.
- Practice reading your message aloud.
- Listen to a partner's message.
- Respond back to their message.

Learning Points

Leaving a Message

Sometimes, when you call someone, they may not answer the telephone. Then, you may want to leave a message.

When you leave a message, it is important to leave information for the person receiving the message.

Here is what you should include:

	Example
Introduction	Hello, this is Marco. Hello. My name is David Beare. (more formal)
Reason for calling	I'm calling to find out if ... /to see if ... /to let you know that ... /to tell you that ...
Make a request	Could you call me back? Would you mind ... ?
Leave your telephone number	My number is ... You can reach me at ... Call me at ... Note: This information is not always needed.
Conclusion	Thanks a lot. Bye. I'll talk to you later. Bye.

Examples:

• Hello, Chelsea. This is Tom. I'm calling to see if you would like to go to the game on Friday. Could you call me back? I'll talk to you later. Bye.

Learning Points

Asking If or When People Are Free

When you want to spend time with someone, you ask them if or when they are free.

You use these phrases to ask people if or when they are free:

I am/was wondering if ...

Are you free on/in ... ?

How does (day) sound?

When are you free to ... ?

What day are you free on?

You can also use the Simple Future tense to talk about the things you would like to do with the person.

For example: If you are free tonight, we can see a movie.

Examples:

- I am wondering if you want to see a movie.
- If you do, I'll buy you a ticket.
- Are you free on Saturday?
- How does tomorrow sound?
- When are you free to walk the dog?
