Let's Start!

Let's visit the concession stand with Marco!

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe plans for the organization of events.

Ask your partner:

- What do you like to eat when you go to the movies?
- What do you usually get?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and drinks.
- I can use words to describe general quantities.
- I can talk about possible actions and events in the future.

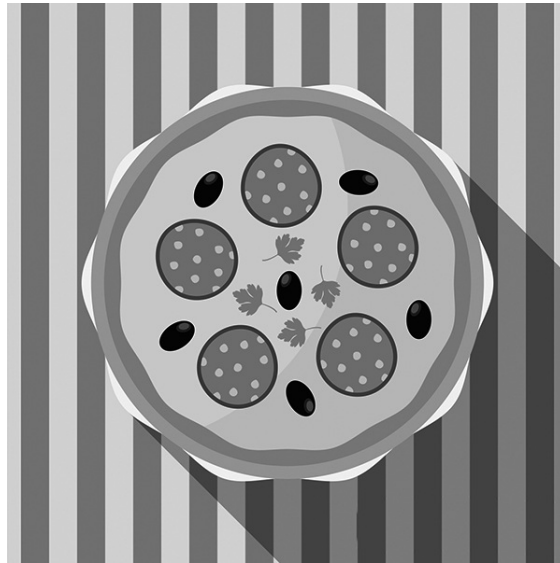

Let's Explore!

Marco is buying treats from the concession stand.

* The "concession stand" is the place that sells food and drinks in a movie theater.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Marco: There's only ten more minutes before the movie starts. Can you find us two seats? I'll grab treats from the concession stand.

Vanessa: Okay.

Clerk: Can I help you?

Marco: Yes, I'd like a large popcorn and a hot dog.

Clerk: Any extra butter with the popcorn?

Marco: No butter please. Can I get some nachos? Do you have any more pretzels?

Clerk: We may have some left. Oh no, sorry, we're out of pretzels, but we have plenty of pizza.

Marco: All right, then I'll have a slice of pizza.

Clerk: Will that be all?

Marco: No, I'd like some licorice and an ice cream sandwich.

Clerk: Anything to drink?

Marco: Yes, I'll take two large sodas.

Clerk: That'll be $54.50.

Marco: What?! That's crazy!

Clerk: If you look at the board, you can see all the prices are there. Do you still want all this?

Marco: Just the sodas and popcorn.

Let's Practice!

Do you want some butter or lots of butter on your popcorn?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

Learning Points

Will, May, Might

You use the Future tense (will) to talk about actions in the future. You can also use the modals might and may to talk about possible actions in the future.

The auxiliary will goes before the verb. The short form is 'll.

You use the Future tense when you talk about the future, make offers or make predictions.

The modals might and may go before the verb.

They talk about future possibility or chance that something will happen.

Might means there is a smaller chance that something will happen (30%).

May means there is a slightly greater chance that something will happen (50%).

Examples:

- I'll have just one of those, please.
- We might have a few hot dogs left.
- We may not have any salted butter though.

Learning Points

Quantifiers

You use a quantifier before a noun to indicate the amount or number of an item.

You use quantifiers with both count and non-count nouns. You can use all of the quantifiers below with both count and non-count nouns.

Quantifier	Meaning
more	a larger number/amount
less/fewer	a smaller number/amount
no/none	0
any/not any	ask about a number or amount/say there is no
some	a small number/amount
a lot of/lots of	a very large number/amount
plenty of	more than you need
enough	as much as you need

Examples:

- There's plenty of popcorn in there!
- I don't want any butter on it.
- There is not enough butter on this.
